

I feel that the Indiana Telephone Privacy law should remain in place. It should be a persons right not to receive unwanted telephone calls.